

Andrew Smith & Son Catalogue 12 Dec 2017

- 1 A pair of Chinese soapstone carvings of seated Buddhist Lions, 15 cm high; together with a number of other items, comprising: seven objects from Peranakan (or other) Sirih sets (a pair of betel nut cutters; two domed Betel nut containers; and four other vessels, possibly lime containers); and six hairpins (15) £100.00 - £200.00
- 2 Two items of Chinese famille rose comprising: an incense burner decorated with the Eight Daoist Immortals, 9 cm diameter, Tongzhi six-character mark but not of the period; and a teapot and cover depicting Two Heroes from The Wu Shuang Pu of 1694 (Fu Sheng/Dong Fang Shuo), 13 cm high (2) £50.00 - £100.00
- 3 Five pieces of Chinese famille rose, comprising: a circular tureen cover with knob finial, 20.5 cm diameter, 18th Century; a cylindrical box and cover decorated with a Daoist Garden, 20 cm high; two Canton vases decorated with figures, the taller 28 cm high; and a vase with two handles decorated with floral designs, the last vase drilled (5) £30.00 - £50.00
- 4 A large Chinese blue and white bitong of typical, cylindrical form decorated with a narrative scene of an Emperor (or other high ranking official) in discussion with another figure; 18.5 cm high; post Qing Dynasty

Similar narrative scenes have appeared on blue and white since at least the Chongzhen era of the late Ming. This post Qing design recalls the well known iconography of Emperors or high ranking aristocrats in discussion, scenes which may imply some thought as to the mandate of a Government or Ruler. Certainly as the Ming drew to a close in 1644, this would have been a relevant theme with which to decorate the underglaze blue of Jingdezhen. £50.00 - £100.00
- 5 Three Chinese Export tankards of cylindrical form, comprising: one in blue and white decorated with scholars in a garden landscape, 11 cm high; and two in famille rose decorated with Manchu/Chinese figures, Qianlong/Jiaqing (3) £30.00 - £50.00
- 6 A Chinese underglaze blue and underglaze red (Yu li hung style) decorated bowl designed with five bats beside cloud scrolls, 19 cm diameter; the base with underglaze blue Qianlong six-character mark but not of the period £40.00 - £80.00
- 7 A Chinese blue and white bowl, decorated with dragons and flaming pearls; about 11 cm diameter; the base with four-character Kangxi mark but not of the period £40.00 - £80.00
- 8 A Chinese set of three blue and white bowls; each one decorated on the exterior with five-clawed dragons and floral designs; all about 12.5 cm diameter, and with underglaze blue Jiaqing six-character mark, but not of the period (3) £30.00 - £50.00
- 9 A Chinese blue and white vase with cylindrical neck and tapering body, decorated with a pair of magpies (or other birds); 23 cm high, the base with underglaze blue six-character Yongzheng mark, but not of the period £300.00 - £500.00
- 10 A Chinese pair of enamelled bowls decorated with the Daoist theme of pine, cranes and deer, 17 cm diameter; a celadon monochrome bowl with four-character mark; a famille rose plate; six blue and white plates; and a white monochrome dish decorated with cranes, 19 cm diameter (11) £40.00 - £80.00

- Provenance: The Property of a Gentleman. From a Scottish Private Collection. Acquired by the owner about 1967. The bowl is accompanied by an original letter, written on 23rd January, 1968, by William Wells (1913-2003), the former keeper of the famous Burrell Collection (now located at the Pollok Country Park in Glasgow, G43 1AT). Although Wells does not actually date this bowl, he concludes that: 'The well of the foot which is covered with a blue and brown glaze is partly obscured by a modern ink-written label of identification including 'no. 194', presumably referring to its lot number in a sale.' This label, sadly, is no longer extant. For another example of thick glaze pooling irregularly across the foot, see the Yuan Dynasty vase (No. 342) in He Li's 'Chinese Ceramics/The New Standard Guide'. £500.00 - £800.00
- 55 A Chinese celadon vase with copper mounted rim, decorated with a bold floral design, 17.5 cm high, Ming Dynasty.
- The original shape of this heavily potted vase is interesting to postulate, and it is tempting to consider that it has not been extensively cut down. According to He Li's 'Chinese Ceramics/The New Standard Guide' (No. 328), this shape, with a small, cylindrical rim and a total height of 21.9 cm, did occur during the Northern Song and Jin era.
