

Andrew Smith & Son Catalogue 28 Mar 2017

- 1 A framed Chinese print designed as four portraits of Mao Zedong (1893-1976), Former Chairman of The Communist Party of China, overall dimensions 79 x 60 cm; together with a Chinese Ancestor Portrait of a Manchu/Chinese Consort, overall dimensions 130 x 62cm (2)
- Provenance: The Property of a Lady. The Mao Zedong picture acquired in Hong Kong, circa 1994. £50.00 - £100.00
- 2 A Chinese famille rose circular box and cover, 9.5cm diameter; together with a famille rose Chinese snuff bottle, and a Japanese ginbari vase decorated with a bijin, the last 15.5cm high and Meiji or Taisho Period (3) £50.00 - £100.00
- 3 Two Chinese, semi-translucent mottled-green stone bowls; each one on a circular foot. Both about 10cm diameter and with a wood stand; together with a Chinese famille rose figure of a seated Budai with impressed mark, 11cm high (5) £50.00 - £100.00
- 4 A quantity of Chinese silver, comprising: a ladle; a Napkin ring; four small condiment containers; one small cup; one menu holder; and two decanter, or other, labels (10)
- Provenance: The Property of a Gentleman. By direct family descent to the Present Owner. Thought to have been collected by Captain Wilfred Harry Dent (1867-1915), presumably during his service with the 1st Chinese (Weihaiwei) Regiment. One of the silver labels here is inscribed: Presented to the Officers of the 1st Chinese Regiment; possibly this was a gift to Captain Dent, following the Regiment's engagement with the Boxers at Tientsin on June 24th 1900. The other silver label here is inscribed: H.M.S. Amphitrite/1902-1903. This vessel is said to have arrived in Hong Kong in 1902, and thereby missed the actions against the Boxers, which took place under the command of Admiral Sir Edward Seymour (Amphritite is not listed as intervening in the Boxer Rebellion by Major L. Gordon in British Battles and Medals/1947 Edition). Perhaps it was Amphritite which transported representatives from the 1st Chinese Regiment to and/or from the Coronation of King Edward VII. This perhaps would account for the inscription here on Captain Dent's label. £50.00 - £100.00
- 5 A Chinese translucent glass or crystal figure of Guanyin, wearing a high chignon and loose fitting garments, 20cm high £30.00 - £50.00
- 6 A Chinese gilt-metal water pipe of typical form, decorated with three girls beside a pine tree; the reverse with a long inscription, 32cm high, post Qing Dynasty; together with two gilded wood, Chinese figures, each about 28cm high (3) £50.00 - £100.00
- 7 A yellow ground Chinese snuff bottle, decorated with the Auspicious symbols of bats and endless knots, the base with underglaze blue four-character Qianlong mark, but not of the period £50.00 - £100.00
- 8 A Chinese white metal leaf from a small table screen or other Scholar's object, inscribed with a poem by The Tang Dynasty poet, Du Mu (circa 803-852 AD), 14.5cm high, Qing Dynasty or later
- Provenance: An English Private Collection. Thought to have been born in Chang'an (modern Xi'an), the poet Du Mu writes a poem here that is an ethereal look at the landscape; it may perhaps be translated as: 'Far away on the cold mountain/There are homes amongst the white clouds/I stopped my carriage to gaze at the forest of Maple/Covered in frost, the leaves are still redder than February's flower'. £20.00 - £30.00
- 9 A Chinese famille rose vase with trumpet neck and underglaze blue design, decorated with Manchu/Chinese figures, 25 cm high; together with a blue and white bottle vase, decorated with a dragon, the base with Qianlong six-character mark, about 21.5 cm high £50.00 - £100.00
- 10 An associated pair of Chinese, white metal lined, nut or wood cups; each cup decorated on the exterior with pine, plants or trees, both about 5.5cm diameter, Qing Dynasty (2) £50.00 - £100.00
- 11 A mottled, Chinese jade figure of a duck, holding fungus in its beak, 6cm long; together with a mottled grey jade slide, 4cm long; a serpentine green figure of a standing girl, 16.5cm high; and a stone vase and domed cover, 22cm high (4) £50.00 - £100.00
- 12 A Chinese, underglaze blue and famille rose decorated vase with cylindrical neck and oviform body; 32cm high, the base with underglaze blue six-character Qianlong mark, but not of the period
- Provenance: The Property of a Lady, from a Private English Collection. £50.00 - £100.00
- 13 Four items of Asian metalwork, comprising: a white metal water pipe; a pair of betel-nut cutters; a white metal chatelaine with circular ring suspension, 18cm long; and a box and cover of circular lobed form, 8cm diameter (4) £50.00 - £100.00
- 14 A turquoise-green Chinese coat decorated with peaches and six applique elephants; about 93 cm long, late Qing Dynasty
- Provenance: According to family tradition, collected by Lieutenant Commander, later Commodore, H.W. Best, Royal Navy, and thence by direct family descent. £200.00 - £300.00
- 15 A collection of small Chinese textiles, comprising:

- a gourd-shaped pocket for tobacco; a purse embroidered with hexagonal motifs in counted stitch, about 10cm square; and five other textiles, also probably purses or Da Lien. Together with a book entitled 'The Chinese Purse/Embroidered Purses of The Ch'ing Dynasty' by Loretta H.Wang (8) £50.00 - £100.00
- 16 A quantity of Japanese and other textiles, including: a Chinese or Korean rank badge decorated with a Buddhistic Lion, 30 x 28cms; a red-brown scarf in hinoki-wood box; an orange-brown gros grain fabric decorated with kanji; a Japanese furoshiki decorated with a red-capped Manchurian crane; another furoshiki decorated with a mask; and a black ground textile decorated with Durna from the Sanskrit Epic, Mahabharata, probably Javanese (lot)
- Provenance: The Property of a Lady. Some of the Japanese textiles, thought to have been collected in Japan, prior to the Second World War. £50.00 - £100.00
- 17 A Chinese green textile gown with white ground sleeves, collar and fringe, decorated with floral and crane designs, length about 85cm, Qing Dynasty or later £200.00 - £300.00
- 18 A quantity of Asian textiles, comprising: five Chinese collars; five other small Chinese textiles; a cerise/pink ground bag with beaded design at the rim, 20 x 22cm; a small enveloped shaped bag decorated with zig-zag, arrow and geometric designs, 19.5cm long; and a scarlet-ground rectangular textile, possibly Gujarat or Rajasthan (13)
- Provenance: The Property of a Lady, from a Private English Collection. £50.00 - £100.00
- 19 A Chinese silk shawl with fringed edges, decorated with bold red flower heads and variously coloured scrolling tendrils, approximately 150 cm square, 20th Century £50.00 - £100.00
- 20 An elegant Indian, pink-ground Sherwani, or other gown; decorated with gilt woven facings and floral designs, length about 124cm £100.00 - £150.00
- 21 A quantity of Asian textiles, comprising: six various Shisha/Abhala Bharat decorated fabrics, variously decorated with geometric, reticulated or other abstract designs; together with two other, similar textiles, lacking the mirrors; possibly Rajasthan, Gujarat or Pakistan (8)
- Provenance: The Property of a Lady. £50.00 - £100.00
- 22 A Japanese short kimono, or other jacket; decorated on the reverse with a shibui design of leaves and plants, about 77cm long, Showa/Heisei Period £15.00 - £30.00
- 23 An Indian, Bidri ware huqqah base with with typical trumpet rim and bell-shaped base, 16.5cm high; together with a Bidri page turner, 25cm long; and an inscribed metal dish, 23cm diameter (3) £50.00 - £100.00
- 24 Three Asian metal sculpture, comprising: a standing figure of Krishna, playing the Divine Flute, 19cm high (flute lacking); a figure of Sakyamuni, The Historical Buddha, seated on a lotus base; 23cm high; and a standing figure of Sakyamuni with his right hand raised in varada mudra, 18cm high (3) £50.00 - £100.00
- 25 A Vaishnava theme, Indian picture on textile portraying The Blue Krishna standing beside thirteen Gopis, possibly representing the musical mode (raga) of Vasanta; dimensions including frame about 194 x 59cm £50.00 - £100.00
- 26 Two Indian pictures, both about 26 x 19 cm; one of a woman seated with her two attendants in a garden whilst smoking a huqqa, possibly Pahari style from Northern India; the other of seated traders or scholars (2) £20.00 - £30.00
- 27 Fourteen various, mainly Indian, pictures, including: a pigment on paper painting depicting Ravana, The Demon King of Lanka, beside Hanuman in an episode from Valmiki's Ramayana, overall dimensions 45 x 23 cm; a small picture possibly depicting Radha kneeling before Krishna; and a Pahari, or other, picture of a girl dressing with her maid (14)
- Provenance: Six of the pictures bearing Oleg Polunin, Godalming stamp or writing. Oleg Vladimirovitch Polunin (1914-1985) was a Botanist of some note who taught at Charterhouse, and was well known for his works on flora, notably 'Flowers of The Himalaya', written together with Adam Stainton, and published by The Oxford University Press in 1985. It may, of course, have been during his trekking across the Himalayan regions, researching for this work, that these pictures were acquired. Polunin's travels took him across a huge area of Asia, including the Nepal/Sikkim border, Nepal, Uttar Pradesh, Himachal Pradesh, Jammu and Kashmir.
- The small picture here of Krishna with his hand above the kneeling girl is interesting. This may not be Radha, but may be Radha's sakhi (her confidante) who was responsible for explaining to Krishna the extent of Radha's elegance, a theme discussed at length by the great Hindi Poet, Bihari Lal in his work, the Satsai. £350.00 - £450.00
- 28 An Indian, small white metal vase, probably Bidri ware from Bidar in The Deccan, nearly 12cm high, 19th Century
- Provenance: The Property of a Lady. For a similar shape, also attributed to Bidri in the 19th Century, see page 212 of 'Islamic Art' by Barbara Brend. £50.00 - £100.00
- 29 A picture of two Chinese Scholars, standing on a rocky promontory, two line inscription and red

- seal, framed and glazed, overall dimensions 115 x 68cm £50.00 - £100.00
- 30 A Chinese porcelain, coral-ground bowl, decorated on the exterior with scrolling, floral designs, 13cm diameter. The rim mounted in white metal; the base with underglaze blue six-character Qianlong mark £80.00 - £120.00
- 31 A glass fronted Chinese wood cabinet; together with a rectangular, lacquered wood plaque decorated with fan-tailed goldfish (2)
- Provenance: The Property of a Lady, from a Private European Collection. £50.00 - £100.00
- 32 A quantity of Asian Art reference books, pamphlets and Exhibition Catalogues, including: Jan Van Beers Oriental Art/Masterpieces in Wood Catalogue/1999; OCS Hong Kong Bulletins Nos. 3/4/5; Arts of Asia/September-October 1978; Spink Form & Function Catalogue (1997); Chinese Porcelain by Anthony du Boulay (1973); The Museum of East Asian Art Journal/Volume V; Oriental Glazes by Nigel Wood (1978); Annamese Ceramics in the Museum Pusat Jakarta (1974); Shino and Oribe Ceramics by Ryoichi Fujioka (1977); Chinese Blue and White Porcelain by OCS Hong Kong (1975); Indonesia by Frits A. Wanger; Ancient Iran by Edith Porada; South East Asian Ceramic Society Booklets (1979-81); Two Volumes of Ernest Fenollosa's Epochs of Chinese and Japanese Art (1963); Chinese Decorative Arts by Bluetts (1974); Chinese Cultural Art Treasures/National Palace Museum Illustrated Handbook (1977); Foundations of Chinese Art by William Willetts (1967); and Chinese White Wares by the South East Asian Ceramic Society (1973) (lot) £50.00 - £100.00
- 33 A quantity of various Christie's and Sotheby's catalogues, including: Christie's Amsterdam/The Nanking Cargo/1986; Christie's Chinese Ceramics and Works of Art, 12-7-2005, containing the Van Hemert jar; Christie's Chinese Ceramics and Works of Art 18-6-2002; and a number of Japanese and Islamic Art catalogues (58) £50.00 - £100.00
- 34 A Chinese porcelain, famille rose brush-rest of curved design with unglazed base, designed with three squirrels climbing along a berry bush, 11cm long, Qianlong
- For a similar example, also 11cm long and given to the Qianlong era of circa 1740-1760, compare that on the Earle D. Vandekar of Knightsbridge website. £50.00 - £100.00
- 35 A Chinese celadon bowl, 19.5cm diameter, Ming Dynasty; together with a white monochrome vase with cylindrical neck, 28cm high, possibly Korean (2) £50.00 - £100.00
- 36 Two famille rose porcelain, Chinese plates: one decorated with two quadrupeds in a landscape; the other designed with a floral garden, both about 23cm diameter, Qianlong (2) £50.00 - £100.00
- 37 Two pieces of Chinese blue and white porcelain, comprising: a powder-blue ground bottle vase, decorated with objects from the Scholar's Studio, 21cm high; together with a blue and white prunus jar and cover, 12cm high (2) £300.00 - £400.00
- 38 Three Asian ceramic teapots, comprising: an austere Yixing stoneware teapot and cover; a famille rose teapot without cover, decorated with two figures, probably taken from the Wu Shuang Pu by Jin Gulian (possibly Ban Zhao, author of the Book of Han, and Wen Tianxiang, symbol of the Song resistance to the Yuan); and an octagonal teapot; the last 17cm diameter (3) £50.00 - £100.00
- 39 A blue and white porcelain Kamcheng with domed cover decorated with floral and foliage designs, 18cm diameter; together with a Chinese small blue and white vase, decorated with a fisherman, 18.5cm high (2) £50.00 - £100.00
- 40 A pair of Peranakan gilt metal Bantal Peluk of rectangular form; each one decorated with sacred symbols, 15.5 x 9 cm, 20th Century; together with an architectural stone plaque, decorated with a mythological animal (3)
- Provenance: The Property of a Lady. £50.00 - £100.00
- 41 A Chinese bronze figure of a scholar seated on a recumbent buffalo, possibly a mirror stand, 16cm long, Ming or Qing Dynasty £100.00 - £200.00
- 42 Five Chinese snuff bottles, including: one in green overlay decorated with fan-tailed goldfish; one in glass with a Qianlong four-character mark; and one in pressed amber decorated with animals (5) £80.00 - £150.00
- 43 A glazed stoneware set of the Eight Daoist Immortals, each figure about 15cm high; together with a book on Daoism, entitled 'The Eight Immortals of Taoism/Legends and Fables of popular Taoism' translated by Kwok Man Ho and Joanne O'Brien (1990) (9) £50.00 - £80.00
- 44 Five various Chinese snuff bottles, including: one in single red overlay with metal spoon and stopper; a small agate bottle, possibly for a lady; and a mottled black stone bottle with animal mask handles; the last bottle about 6.5 cm high (5) £80.00 - £150.00
- 45 A green Chinese jade paperweight, or other object for the Scholar's Studio; the composition apparently a stringed instrument wrapped up beside a text and a prunus spray; 9.5cm long £800.00 - £1,000.00
- 46 Six various Chinese snuff bottles, including: one decorated with four female figures and with a Qianlong six-character mark on the base; a porcelain bottle decorated en-grisaille with four figures; one decorated in single overlay with two elephants; and one of double gourd form with

- metal spoon (6) £80.00 - £150.00
- 47 Six Chinese snuff bottles, including: a coral-red monochrome glazed bottle; a blue overlay bottle; a white overlay bottle decorated with a horseman; and a bottle overlaid with fish (6) £80.00 - £150.00
- 48 A Chinese green jade brushpot, carved as a peach hanging from a gnarled stem, about 11cm long; some darker, mottled inclusions, post Qing Dynasty £1,000.00 - £1,500.00
- 49 A pair of soapstone figures; each one carved as Shoulao, holding a staff in his right hand and a peach in his left; both about 25cm high (2) £50.00 - £100.00
- 50 A Chinese jade, or jade style, necklace comprising 46 spherical green beads with some yellow metal dividers; length when worn about 39cm; some beads decorated with shou symbols £500.00 - £1,000.00
- 51 A Chinese green jade of whitish hue, carved as a Cormorant, or other bird standing beside a large lotus leaf, 8cm high, post Qing Dynasty £50.00 - £100.00
- 52 A mottled orange cornelian pendant with yellow metal ring, carved as a dragon chasing a flaming pearl, 4cm high £50.00 - £100.00
- 53 A set of five famille rose, Chinese porcelain figures of standing Daoist Immortals, each one about 22cm high, Qing Dynasty (5)
- Provenance: The Property of a Lady £80.00 - £120.00
- 54 Two pieces of blue and white, comprising: a Chinese Export porcelain, circular dish, decorated with a mountainous river landscape, 34cm diameter; together with a cylindrical vase, 25.5cm high; both Qing Dynasty (2) £50.00 - £100.00
- 55 A Chinese porcelain, blue and white dish with central floral design surrounded at the well with alternate panels of rabbits and flowers, 20.5cm diameter, Kangxi
- Provenance: The Property of a Lady £250.00 - £300.00
- 56 Three pieces of blue and white ceramics, comprising: a stem cup with circular bowl, 11cm high; a joss-stick or other holder of trapezoid form, 8.5cm long; and a circular dish decorated with formal lotus, about 19.5cm diameter, the base with six-character Qianlong mark but not of the period (3) £350.00 - £400.00
- 57 A pair of blue and white, Chinese porcelain bowls and stands, 10cm diameter, each bowl with Guangxu six-character mark on the base (4)
- Provenance: The Property of a Gentleman. By family tradition, thought to have been collected by Captain Wilfred Harry Dent (1867-1915) during his service with the 1st Chinese (Weihaiwei) Regiment. According to a family letter written on July 26th, 1902 by Mrs Ernest Dent to her mother, Mrs Williamson, soldiers from The Chinese Regiment came to London that year in order to take part in The Coronation celebrations of King Edward VII on August 9th. £50.00 - £100.00
- 58 A blue and white, Chinese porcelain, oviform prunus jar and cover, decorated with a typical design of plum blossom, 24cm high; the base with Kangxi four-character mark, but not of the period (2) £100.00 - £200.00
- 59 A turquoise-blue monochrome, Chinese vase; together with a small saucer dish, 12.5cm diameter, with Daoguang mark but not of the period; and two famille rose tea bowls and saucers (6)
- Provenance: The Property of a Gentleman. The saucer dish with the Daoguang mark here apparently portrays four of the famous heroes from Classical China (The Wu Shuang Pu) by Jin Gulian in a compilation that first appeared in 1694. Of course, both the iconography and colouring of each hero or heroine has been subject to some change, but the four paragons illustrated here may be Chen Tuan, the 9th Century Daoist, Chen Dong (1086-1127) presenting his petition to the Emperor, Qian Liu (852-932) and Cao E, the Han Dynasty heroine. Chen Dong was active in the resistance against those appeasing the invasion by the Jurchen Tartars, an opposition that even questioned the legitimacy and mandate of the Song Emperor, Gaozong. £80.00 - £150.00
- 60 A famille rose Chinese vase with flaring, trumpet neck; decorated with circular panels depicting Manchu/Chinese figures between sacred emblems from Buddhism, apparently the Padma, the conjoined fish, the Dharmachakra, and the Dhvaja. Qing Dynasty; mounted for electricity with wood stand and gilt mounts. Height of vase about 40cm high £300.00 - £500.00
- 61 A sancai decorated, Chinese horse, looking to the left, after a Tang Dynasty original, 50cm high
- Compare a genuine model of a similar horse in The Victoria and Albert Museum, illustrated in 'Tang Pottery and Porcelain' by Margaret Medley £50.00 - £100.00
- 62 A Canton famille rose vase, decorated with typical Manchu/Chinese figures in narrative scenes, 29cm high; together with a Chinese famille rose bowl, decorated with flowers and invertebrates, nearly 23cm wide, the base with six-character Jiaqing mark, but not of the period (2) £100.00 - £200.00
- 63 A Chinese famille rose circular dish, decorated with a shou symbol and four panels of long-tailed birds on a millefleurs ground, 37cm diameter; the base with Qianlong six-character mark, but not of the period
- Provenance: The Property of a Lady. £200.00 - £300.00

- 64 A Chinese famille rose vase with trumpet neck, decorated with The Daoist theme of two girls with a stag and peaches, possibly Xi Wangmu with an attendant in the Kunlun Mountains, 44cm high £200.00 - £300.00
- 65 A Chinese famille rose bottle vase and domed cover with knob finial; decorated with panels depicting birds, flowers and gardens; 40cm high, late Qing Dynasty or later (2) £200.00 - £300.00
- 66 Two famille rose dishes: one Chinese, of octagonal form, Yongzheng/Qianlong; the other a Samson dish decorated with peony, 24cm diameter (2) £20.00 - £30.00
- 67 A Chinese famille rose dish decorated with Manchu/Chinese figures, 23.5cm diameter, Qianlong; together with a Canton polychrome dish; two small provincial blue and white dishes; a blue and white teabowl; and a trio decorated en-grisaille with floral designs. The trio Qianlong (8) £100.00 - £150.00
- 68 A Chinese rectangular table with tapering legs, and with a reticulated design at each side, 123 x 31 x 81cm, Qing Dynasty £200.00 - £300.00
- 69 A Chinese wood sculpture of a Chinese Scholar, holding a status Badge of office, 28cm high, Ming/Qing Dynasty £50.00 - £70.00
- 70 An antique Chinese circular rosewood stand, the top with inset veined marble, inlaid overall with mother of pearl with designs of iridescent shell, 40 cm diameter x 52 cm high £100.00 - £200.00
- 71 An elegant Chinese bamboo bitong (brushpot) of cylindrical form, decorated with a water buffalo nursing its young calf; the reverse with inscription and seal, 16cm high £50.00 - £100.00
- 72 A Chinese cloisonne enamel figure of a prancing horse, looking to the right; with white surcingle and associated, removable saddle; 39cm high, post Qing Dynasty £50.00 - £100.00
- 73 A painted Chinese bronze figure of Avalokitesvara or Guanyin, seated with the left foot perched on the padma stem, and the right hand raised in mudra. Ming or Qing Dynasty; mounted for electricity with fixed gilt-metal mount. Height of bronze about 32cm high
- Provenance: The Property of a Lady, thought to have been collected by either her Grandfather or her Great-Grandfather. £200.00 - £400.00
- 74 An associated pair of gilded metal Tantric figures: one probably Avalokitesvara Shadakshari, holding both central hands together in anjali mudra; the other possibly Green Tara with a padma flower at each shoulder, and with both hands expressed in mudra; each figure about 22cm high and with a rectangular wood stand (4) £500.00 - £700.00
- 75 A Chinese, or other Asian, metal candlestick decorated at the base with taotie-style motifs; the tall, shaped stem with reticulated designs, 45 cm high £50.00 - £100.00
- 76 A Chinese wood offering or Altar box of cuboid form, decorated with four reticulated panels; two panels with script and two panels depicting scholars; 26cm square, Qing Dynasty
- Provenance: The Property of a Lady; from a Private European Collection.
- Exhibited: No. 16 in 'Masterpieces in Wood'/Exhibition of Early Qing Carvings, 9th-20th November, 1999 at Jan van Beers Oriental Art, 34 Davies Street, London W1 (The catalogue of this Exhibition, sold with the box, refers). According to this catalogue (op.cit. above), the two different types of script here represent a poem in Zhou era characters, and a reminder of Qin Shih Huang Di's unsuccessful pilgrimage to the sacred mountain of Mount Tai in Shandong. It was the First Sovereign Emperor of Chin's wish to pay Homage at the mountain, as a means by which to legalise his position as Emperor; he was unable to complete the formalities of this observance, however, due to a storm on the mountain. Tai shan's mile high climb may be regarded, therefore, as a highly significant devotion, and as van Beers further points out, Emperor Wu of The Han, also made this journey in about 110BC. Perhaps the success of Emperor Wu's journey here may be interpreted as a justification of the Confucian principles, which according to some sources had suffered during the Qin era.
- £50.00 - £100.00
- 77 A Chinese wood, rectangular low table with scrolling and reticulated designs, 100cm long, Qing Dynasty £80.00 - £150.00

Provenance: The Property of a Lady, collected by her Great Aunt prior to the Second World War. The shape here was presumably intended as a reminder of the ritual bronzes that are now dated to about the 11th Century BC. This was the moment in China's bronze production which saw

- stylised heads of rams, birds, owls and mythological animals incorporated into the designs of zun, you, lei or jia. William Watson in 'The Arts of China to AD900' argues for the zun as 'a wider version of the hu', concluding that the shapes established at the time of the Shang formalised a convention which 'may be termed heiratic' (page 26 op.cit above, refers). Here perhaps is the reason for a similar form of vessel from the Qing, bearing the four-character mark of The Qianlong Emperor. £300.00 - £500.00
